Enrollment and Program Completers

THIS PAGE INCLUDES:

>> Enrollment and Program Completers

In each of the following categories, provide the total number of individuals enrolled in teacher preparation programs for an initial teaching credential and the subset of individuals enrolled who also completed the program during the academic year.

Teachers Prepared

On this page, enter the number of program completers by the subject area in which they were prepared to teach, and by their academic majors. Note that an individual can be counted in more than one academic major and subject area. For example, if an individual is prepared to teach Elementary Education and Mathematics, that individual should be counted in both subject areas. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major or subject area, you may leave the cell blank. Please use the "Other" category sparingly, if there is no similar subject area or academic major listed. In these cases, you should use the text box to describe the subject area(s) and/or the academic major(s) counted in the "Other" category.

If your IHE offers both traditional and alternative programs, be sure to enter the program completers in the appropriate reports. For the traditional report, provide only the program completers in traditional programs within the IHE. For the alternative report, provide only the program completers for the alternative programs within the IHE.

After entering the teachers prepared data, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

Key terms in this section are listed below. Click on the link to view the definition(s) in the glossary.

- >> Teachers Prepared by Academic Major

Teachers Prepared by Subject Area

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by subject area for academic year 2021-22.

For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Subject area" refers to the subject area(s) an individual has been prepared to teach. An individual can be counted in more than one subject area. If no individuals were prepared in a particular subject area, please leave that cell blank. (§205\(b\)\(1\)\(H\))

What are CIP Codes?

No teachers prepared in academic year 2021-22

If your program has no teachers prepared, check the box above and leave the table below blank (or clear responses already entered).

What are CIP codes? The Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) provides a taxonomic scheme that supports the accurate tracking and reporting of fields of study and program completions activity. CIP was originally developed by the U.S. Department of Education's National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) in 1980, with revisions occurring in 1985, 1990, and 2000 (<https://nces.ed.gov/ipeds/cipcode/Default.aspx?y=55>).

Teachers Prepared by Academic Major

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by academic major for academic year 2021-22. For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Academic major" refers to the actual major(s) declared by the program completer. An individual can be counted in more than one academic major. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major, please leave that cell blank. (§205\(b\)\(1\)\(H\))

Please note that the list of majors includes several "Teacher Education" majors, as well as several noneducation majors. Please use care in entering your majors to ensure education-specific majors and non-education majors are counted correctly. For example, if an individual majored in Chemistry, that individual should be counted in the "Chemistry" academic major category rather than the "Teacher Education–Chemistry" category.

Use of Technology

1. Provide the following information about the use of technology in your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request. (§205\(a\)\(1\)\(F\))

Does your program prepare teachers to:

- a. integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction

Yes

No

- b. use technology effectively to collect data to improve teaching and learning

Yes

No

- c. use technology effectively to manage data to improve teaching and learning

Yes

No

- d. use technology effectively to analyze data to improve teaching and learning

Yes

No

2. Provide a description of the evidence that your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction, and to use technology effectively to collect, manage, and analyze data in order to improve teaching and learning for the purpose of increasing student academic achievement. Include a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to use the principles of universal design for learning, as applicable. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the four elements listed above are not currently in place.

1. The Indiana Wesleyan teacher education program contains a technology thread that is included in each of the five domains of the Teacher as Decision Maker conceptual framework. As such, candidates' ability to integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction is assessed multiple times prior to graduation. 2. School of Teacher Education program candidates are required to take a technology course related to their field of study. 3. The Teacher Work Sample (TWS) is an assessment completed by all candidates during the student-teaching semester. The TWS requires students to collect, analyze, and display pre-test and post-test data using appropriate technology to make instructional decisions. 4. ISTE aligned assessments were added to all traditional programs in 2022-2023.

Provide the following information about your teacher preparation program.

(§205(a)(1)(G))

Note: This section is preloaded from the prior year's IPRC.

Teacher Training

1. Provide a description of the activities that prepare general education teachers to:

a. Teach students with disabilities effectively

All teacher candidates in the School of Teacher Education are required to take Psychology of the Exceptional Learner, a 3 credit course that explores the nature of individual learning needs, including the needs of children who differ in cognitive-academic, social-emotional, physical-sensory characteristics, special education and related services, and basic principles for integrating all people into educational and other environments. The course is taught by a full-time faculty member, licensed and experienced in Exceptional Needs Education. The Conceptual Framework of the School of Teacher Education includes 5 Domains, aligned to the InTASC Core Teacher standards. Domain I: Learners includes indicators unique to Individual Learning Needs. The following indicators are used as a foundation to guide curriculum, instruction, and assessment throughout the Teacher Education Program. -The candidate designs learning opportunities that reflect student differences in approaches to learning and appropriately challenge all learners. -The candidate identifies and implements appropriate modifications and accommodations to enable all students to reach their potential. - The candidate identifies and implements appropriate assistive technologies to meet individual learning needs. -The candidate articulates legal rights and needs of students as outlined in IEPs, Section 504 plans, and other documents. The candidate's teaching shows evidence of intentional promotion of students' rights and needs. -The candidate designs and implements developmentally appropriate and challenging learning experiences, making appropriate content accessible to all learners. Students are intentionally placed in field experiences where they work with students with disabilities. Practical application occurs in multiple settings throughout the program. During the semester-long Student Teaching experience, candidates are actively involved in all student-related case conferences, and responsible for planning and implementing instruction for students with disabilities. Key assessments used to evaluate teaching performance include criteria that address a candidate's ability to teach students with disabilities effectively. Supervisors take opportunity to provide feedback for growth throughout the program.

b. Participate as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.

All teacher candidates in the School of Teacher Education are required to take Psychology of the Exceptional Learner, a 3 credit course that explores the nature of individual learning needs, including the needs of children who differ in cognitive-academic, social-emotional, physical-sensory characteristics, special education and related services, and basic principles for integrating all people into educational and other environments. The course is taught by a full-time faculty member, licensed and experienced in Exceptional Needs Education. The Conceptual Framework of the School of Teacher Education includes 5 Domains, aligned to the InTASC Core Teacher standards. Domain I: Learners includes indicators unique to Individual Learning Needs. The following indicators are used as a foundation to guide curriculum, instruction, and assessment throughout the Teacher Education Program. -The candidate designs learning opportunities that reflect student differences in approaches to learning and appropriately challenge all learners. -The candidate identifies and implements appropriate modifications and accommodations to enable all students to reach their potential. - The candidate identifies and implements appropriate assistive technologies to meet individual learning needs. -The candidate articulates legal rights and needs of students as outlined in IEPs, Section 504 plans, and other documents. The candidate's teaching shows evidence of intentional promotion of students' rights and needs. -The candidate designs and implements developmentally appropriate and challenging learning experiences, making appropriate content accessible to all learners. Key assessments used to evaluate teaching performance include criteria that address a candidate's ability to teach students with disabilities effectively. Supervisors take opportunity to provide feedback for growth throughout the program.

c. Effectively teach students who are limited English proficient.

All teacher candidates in the School of Teacher Education are required to take coursework that explores multicultural perspective. For Secondary Education majors and Exceptional Needs majors, Principles of Teaching, a 3 credit course is required. The course includes a related practical field experience in a multicultural setting. For Elementary Education majors, Education in a Pluralistic Society, a 3 credit course is required that emphasizes the implications of culturally responsive teaching within a multicultural classroom. Areas for examination include identity, race, ethnicity, culture, gender, language, parent involvement, and religion. A second course, ELL in the 21st Century Classroom, provides opportunity for the education major to develop and/or improve skills in working with English Language Learners in the general elementary classroom. Students learn the stages of culture shock, stages of second language acquisition, characteristics of academic English, and instructional practices that will enhance learning for English Learners in mathematics, social studies, science, and literacy. The Conceptual Framework of the School of Teacher Education includes 5 Domains, aligned to the InTASC Core Teacher standards. Domain I: Learners includes indicators unique to Culturally Responsive Teaching. The following indicators are used as a foundation to guide curriculum, instruction, and assessment throughout the Teacher Education Program. -The candidate analyzes and modifies curriculum to reflect and engage ethnic, cultural, linguistic, and socioeconomic diversity. -The candidate pursues opportunities to increase his or her understanding of students' ethnic, cultural, linguistic, and /or socioeconomic experience; instruction shows evidence of the candidate's professional development. -The candidate fosters relationships and collaborates with families and community stakeholders to create a culturally-responsive educational environment. Students are intentionally placed in multicultural field placements. Practical application occurs in multiple settings throughout the program. During the semester-long Student Teaching experience, candidates are responsible for planning and implementing instruction for multicultural students. Key assessments used to evaluate teaching performance include criteria that address a candidate's ability to teach students who are limited English proficient. Supervisors take opportunity to provide feedback for growth throughout the program.

2. Does your program prepare special education teachers?

- Yes
 No

If yes, provide a description of the activities that prepare special education teachers to:

Key assessments used to evaluate teaching performance include criteria that address a candidate's ability to teach students with disabilities effectively. Supervisors take opportunity to provide feedback for growth throughout the program. In addition, the School of Teacher Education provides rigorous coursework with specific classes that address Teaching and Learning in Inclusive Settings, Assessment in Special Education, Public Policy and Special Education, and methods courses specific for exceptional learners. Council for Exceptional Children standards are aligned to all key assessments and were met without conditions in prior SPA report. Students are intentionally placed in multiple field experiences where they work with students with disabilities. Practical application occurs in multiple settings throughout the program. During the semester-long Student Teaching experience, candidates are actively involved in all student-related case conferences, and responsible for planning and implementing instruction for students with disabilities.

b. Participate as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.

All teacher candidates in the School of Teacher Education are required to take Psychology of the Exceptional Learner, a 3 credit course that explores the nature of individual learning needs, including the needs of children who differ in cognitive-academic, social-emotional, physical-sensory characteristics, special education and related services, and basic principles for integrating all people into educational and other environments. The course is taught by a full-time faculty member, licensed and experienced in Exceptional Needs Education. The Conceptual Framework of the School of Teacher Education includes 5 Domains, aligned to the InTASC Core Teacher standards. Domain I: Learners includes indicators unique to Individual Learning Needs. The following indicators are used as a foundation to guide curriculum, instruction, and assessment throughout the Teacher Education Program. -The candidate designs learning opportunities that reflect student differences in approaches to learning and appropriately challenge all learners. -The candidate identifies and implements appropriate modifications and accommodations to enable all students to reach their potential. -The candidate identifies and implements appropriate assistive technologies to meet individual learning needs. -The candidate articulates legal rights and needs of students as outlined in IEPs, Section 504 plans, and other documents. The candidate's teaching shows evidence of intentional promotion of students' rights and needs. -The candidate designs and implements developmentally appropriate and challenging learning experiences, making appropriate content accessible to all learners. Students are intentionally placed in field experiences where they work with students with disabilities. Practical application occurs in multiple settings throughout the program.
