CHIEF'S MESSAGE

Dear Indiana Wesleyan University Community,

The members of the Indiana Wesleyan University Campus Police believe in the values of Integrity, Respect, Service, and Personal Responsibility. These principles guide us in our daily interactions with the IWU community. IWU Campus Police Reports to the the Interim Vice President of Student Development and is responsible for ensuring the safety and security of the IWU community as well as enforcing Indiana State laws. The Department responds to criminal or unsafe behaviors by encouraging officers to engage the community in dialogue and by developing innovative methods to problem-solve through community partnerships that are appropriate to our campus.

INTRODUCTION

The Indiana Wesleyan University Police Department prepares the Annual Security and Fire Safety Report (ASR) in compliance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act ("Clery Act"). IWU National and Global campus' are the heart of the Adult and Graduate programs. Various degrees offered through Adult and Graduate programs are available at 10 different Regional Education Centers. Each Education Center houses state-of-the-art classrooms, library resources, study rooms, computer labs, and conference rooms. Programs are also available at a number of convenient learning sites located throughout Indiana, Kentucky and Ohio. Since 1997, most of these programs have been available online, while some of the classes still meet in the traditional classroom setting. At Indiana Wesleyan University, campus safety is as valued as academic, financial and geographic considerations.

Information and statistics contained within the below sections of this report are compiled from specific information pertaining to the various IWU National and Global campus. This information is maintained by the IWU Campus Police Department, local law enforcement agencies, various University officials and departments, and approved by the Campus Safety Advisory Group (CSAG).

For the below Regional Education Centers, the Clery Act requires colleges and universities to:

1. Disclose crime statistics for the campus, public areas immediately adjacent to or running through the campus, and certain non-campus facilities. Statistics also include liquor, drug and weapon law violations if they result in a disciplinary referral or arrest.
2. Provide timely warning notices of crimes that have occurred on campus and/or pose an ongoing threat to students and employees, and issue emergency notifications upon the confirmation of a significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees occurring on campus.
3. Disclose, in a public crime log, any crime that occurred on campus or within the patrol jurisdiction of the campus police or a crime that is reported to the University.
4. Publish an annual security report every year by October 1 that contains three years of campus crime and fire safety statistics and certain campus security policy statements.
5. Submit collected crime and fire statistics to the U.S. Department of Education.

IWU Marion and IWU National and Global are two separate campuses. The main administrative building for National and Global is located at 1886 West 50th Street, in Marion, Indiana, and all the Regional Education Centers are reported under this entity. This report should be used as a valuable, informative tool. Please carefully review the information within this report including campus safety tips and specific policies to address gender based violence on college campuses. Personal safety is the responsibility of everyone, and we need your assistance in helping maintain a safe campus environment.

Each year, an email notification is sent to all enrolled or employed students, faculty, and staff with the direct URL address for accessing this report. If you have any questions about this report, please feel free to contact Chief of Police Kyle D Beal at 765.677.2497 or email kyle.beal@indwes.edu.

GENERAL CAMPUS SAFETY

GENERAL CAMPUS SAFETY

REGIONAL EDUCATION CENTER SAFETY

Indiana Wesleyan University is committed to maintaining a safe, healthy and educational environment for all students, employees and visitors to the campus community. The success of individuals and the university does not rest solely on IWU Campus Police or local law enforcement agencies, but depends on personal and mutual commitments to looking after one another. What we do, or fail to do, affects our own safety and the safety of others.

The university has certain policies to establish and maintain the safety and well-being of its students, employees and the campus community. Violators of those policies risk disciplinary actions up to and including expulsion/termination from IWU as well as prosecution by federal, state and local law enforcement agencies.

IWU Police and local law enforcement attempts to eliminate or minimize criminal opportunities by educating the university community through educational components that encourages students, faculty and staff to be responsible for both their own safety and the safety of others. All students are informed about the types of crimes that occur on campus, prevention resources and services offered by IWU.

New employees are informed about where to view the Annual Security and Fire Safety Report during new employee orientation. Throughout the academic year, various departments on campus provide additional prevention education and awareness programs on topics including sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, stalking, drug and alcohol awareness, and maintaining a healthy lifestyle.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURE GUIDE

Campus Police is in the process of updating this document with the help of several other IWU partners. Once this document is finalized it will be shared with all members of the IWU community.

CARE TEAM

The University has two CARE teams, one for the residential campus, and one for the National & Global campuses. The CARE Team (Campus Assessment, Response, Evaluation) is a group of university administrators that serves as a clearing house for individuals to report concerning student interactions and/or behavior. The group reviews reports to carefully determine:

- If intervention is necessary
- Appropriate course of action
- Any necessary follow-up

The purpose of the CARE Team is to identify students of concern and increase the probability that they receive the needed care and resources to strengthen retention and student success and minimize the risk of campus disruption or danger.

CRIME PREVENTION

The cooperation and involvement of all members of the IWU community is essential in promoting safety, and are sponsored by various campus departments throughout the year. IWU students, faculty, and staff must assume responsibility for their own personal safety and the security of their personal belongings by taking simple, common sense precautions. An individual's awareness of environment and surroundings is the best place to start. You should always report any suspicious individuals or vehicles on any campus or IWU property to Campus Police (765-677-4911) or by contacting your local law enforcement agency.

The University suggests the following crime prevention and personal safety tips, which can contribute to the safety and security of the IWU community.

PERSONAL SAFETY & CRIME PREVENTION TIPS
PERSONAL PROPERTY • Record the serial numbers to your property and mark personal items with your name or some other traceable identification. • Keep your credit cards, debit cards and important documents out of sight and secure. • Leave items of high monetary value at home. • Do not leave personal property unattended. • Do not carry more cash than necessary • Keep your purse, backpack close to your body. GENERAL INFORMATION • At night, travel in well-lighted areas and in pairs, if possible. • Do not bring any kind of weapon on University property. • If you see something, say something! • Report it to police: • Marion Campus: 765-677-4911 • Regional Locations: Call Local Police • Notify Campus Police if you have a protective order issued against an individual that cites Indiana Wesleyan University as a protected location. • Be aware of email scams and solicitation for jobs; if it seems too good to be true, it probably is.	RESIDENCE HALL/APARTMENTS • Keep your room locked and keep your keys with you; do not loan them to others. • Do not prop open exterior doors of residence halls unless you are actually entering or exiting at that time. • Do not attach your name and address to your keys. • Do not let strangers enter the residence halls. • If someone knocks on your door, find out who it is before you open the door. • Never give out your information or a neighbor's personal information to strangers. • Do not leave a message on your door concerning your whereabouts. • Report any lost or stolen keys immediately. VEHICLES • Lock your car. • Keep your car keys with you at all times. • Do not leave valuable items in your car, including personal items • Do not park in isolated areas.

SAFETY & SECURITY OFF CAMPUS

SAFETY AND SECURITY OFF CAMPUS

IWU Campus Police does not provide primary law enforcement services to off-campus residences or apartments, other than houses and property owned and/or operated by IWU that is not attached to the main Marion Campus. All Regional Education Centers should build a relationship with their respective law enforcement agency, and those agencies where you live. For all National and Global locations, the Campus Security Authority will facilitate crime reporting to all law enforcement agencies and assist them as needed.

When there is a potential that an IWU student is involved in an offense while off-campus, IWU police may assist with the investigation in cooperation with the responding law enforcement agency. IWU students involved in an off-campus criminal incident are subject to University disciplinary action, in addition to state and local criminal proceedings.

OFF CAMPUS SAFETY CONSIDERATIONS

While many IWU students live on campus there are some student who live off campus, and when student graduate they will be on their own to find housing. The following information is intended to assist those living off campus. When students go from living in a secure on-campus residential facility to living within their own house or apartment, many of the safety features a university offers is not always available. Students living off campus should consider the following safety recommendations:

- Make sure the locks have been changed since the previous tenants moved out.
- List only your first initial and last name on a mailbox.
- Leave lights on or use a timer when you are away for an extended time or arrive home after dark.
- If your keys are lost or stolen, change your locks immediately.
- Request a house watch from local law enforcement while away for an extended period of time.

When you find a new place to live, prior to moving in and signing a lease, conduct a security walk-through with the landlord. Make sure to ask questions and carefully inspect your potential home. Here are some questions to keep in mind, and things to look for:

- How safe is the neighborhood?
- Are there smoke detectors throughout the unit, especially near the bedroom area?
- Is there sufficient lighting indoors and outdoors?
- Is the landscaping maintained to keep windows, doors and walkways visible and eliminate hiding places?
- Are there quality locks with a deadbolt on doors, as well as locks on the windows?
- Does the route to walk to and from public transportation appear safe?

EMERGENCY RESPONSE & EVACUATIONS

INDIANA WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY COLUMBUS

EMERGENCY RESPONSE & EVACUATION

Each IWU Regional Education Center location maintains location-specific emergency response and evacuation procedures that follow the template procedures established for the Marion campus. These procedures are housed with the Director of Regional Operations and Logistical Support, and Campus Police. In the event of an emergency, contact should be made immediately with local law enforcement and additional necessary resources. Police will summon the necessary resources to investigate, mitigate, and document any situation that may cause a significant emergency or dangerous situation. It is the University's responsibility to notify, without delay, the campus community of any confirmed significant emergency of dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health and safety of individuals. The Chief of Police or designee will determine the notification's content and will initiate the notification system, unless, in professional judgment, notification at the time would compromise efforts to assist victims, or contain or respond to, or mitigate the emergency. IWU Chief of Police or designee has the authority to issue emergency messages and notification, as they deem necessary to maximum public safety. Some or all of the emergency notification methods may be activated in the event of an immediate threat to the campus. The incident will be continually assessed by campus police and other agencies on scene, allowing for follow-up information to be provided to the campus community. All IWU Nation and Global Regional sites have assigned RAVE administrators that are able to send notifications.

If appropriate, campus and building evacuations will be completed according to the evacuation/shelter-in-place/lockdown procedures described in the Indiana Wesleyan University Integrated Emergency Operations Plan (IEOP). The University has in place emergency building directories, posters, signage, and Building Coordinators to assist with evacuation and emergency procedures. Storm warning sirens, mass emails and text alerts are tested regularly, and drills are conducted periodically in the residence halls.

The Indiana Wesleyan University Integrated Emergency Operations Plan (IEOP) outlines the overall emergency plan for the University. It describes the levels of emergency operations, the chain of command/response in an emergency situation, and guidelines for Individual Building Emergency Planning. The Mission of IWU's Integrated Emergency Operations Plan is to enable the University to respond to an emergency situation in a safe, effective, and timely manner.

University personnel and equipment will be utilized to accomplish the following priorities:

- Priority 1 Protection of Human Life
- Priority 2 Protection of University Assets
- Priority 3 Maintenance/Restoration of University Core Services
- Priority 4 Restoration of University Operations

For most major campus emergencies, the Emergency Response Plan activation begins at the discretion of the University Incident Commander upon the receipt of information of an emergency event or threat of an emergency. Based on the Campus Police recommendation and information obtained from other appropriate entities, the University Incident Commander, after consultation with the University President, will declare the level of the emergency and activate the Integrated Emergency Operations Plan to the extent necessary. Upon activation, the Emergency Operations Team members will be notified and should report to the Emergency Operations Center. The Emergency Operations Team shall review the circumstances of the emergency with the Incident Commander who will brief the President and determine the appropriate response.

SHELTER-IN-PLACE

WHAT IS "SHELTER-IN-PLACE"

If an incident occurs and the building(s) or areas around you become unstable, or if the air outdoors becomes dangerous due to toxic or irritating substances, it may be safer to stay indoors. When this happens, "shelter-in-place" may be necessary because leaving the area may expose you to a danger. Shelter-in-place means to stay inside a known, safe area to avoid adverse conditions in an exterior environment. If an incident occurs that does not present a safe opportunity to evacuate, a place of safety should be located.

This is done using the building you are in. If an incident occurs that does not present a safe opportunity to evacuate, a place of safety should be located. This can be done by making a few adjustments to the location and with these adjustments, the location can be made even safer and more comfortable until it is safe to go outside.

BASIC SHELTER-IN-PLACE PROCEDURES

If the building you are in is damaged it may no longer afford you the protection necessary from the incident. If this happens, your best option may be to exit the building. Take personal belongings (purse, wallet, medications) as long as it does not slow your exit. Follow the evacuation protocols for your building, close your door, proceed to the nearest exit, and use the stairs instead of the elevators. Once evacuated, seek shelter at the nearest safe building. Follow all instructions given by first responders if they are already on scene.

If the building you are in is not damaged and still affords protection, stay inside, this may be the safest place for you. If possible, move to an interior room and away from glass or items that might become flying objects. Stay inside until you are told the area is safe by designated staff or it is obvious the incident has passed and no longer poses a danger to your wellbeing.

SHELTER-IN-PLACE NOTIFICATION

There are several reasons to shelter-in-place and the university will attempt to make all necessary notifications to the campus community when this need arises. At times, this decision to shelter-in-place may rest with you. A shelter-in-place notification may come from several sources, including IWU Police, Residential Learning staff members, university employees, or the University's emergency notification system. Examples include, but are not limited to: door-to-door notifications; IWU Police vehicle public address system; text messages; mass emails; media alert (TV, print, radio, Internet); Facebook; or other means necessary.

HOW TO SHELTER-IN-PLACE

No matter where you are, these basic steps should be considered and assist you in sheltering. Follow these steps unless instructed otherwise by emergency personnel.

1. If you are inside, stay where you are.
 - a. Collect any emergency supplies you may need if you must evacuate immediately.
2. If you are caught outdoors, move quickly to the nearest undamaged building and take shelter.
3. If possible, your shelter area should be:
 - a. An interior room above ground level; and
 - b. Without windows or with the least number of windows possible.
4. Shut and lock all windows (tighter seal) and close exterior doors.
5. Turn off air conditioners, heaters, and fans.
6. Close vents to ventilation systems if able.
7. Turn on a radio or TV (if power is still available) and listen for more information about the incident.

FIRE EVACUATION

In the event of a fire alarm, or confirmed smoke or fire, please safely exit the building using the nearest stairwell. Upon exit, please notify responding emergency personnel of the location of the fire and move to a safe distance to allow responders the ability to work. Evacuation routes and plans are posted on the emergency building directories located by the exits.

CAMPUS COMMUNICATIONS & NOTIFICATIONS

CAMPUS COMMUNICATIONS AND NOTIFICATIONS

Indiana Wesleyan University works to provide information to students and employees about campus security procedures and encourages them to be responsible for their own security and the security of others. In order to accomplish this goal, students and employees are kept informed about crimes or emergencies occurring on campus or immediately adjacent to campus. In addition to this information, the IWU Campus Community is given information on prevention strategies through a variety of non-emergency communications channels.

DAILY CRIME LOG AND FIRE LOG

One method of disseminating crime information is the maintenance of the Daily Crime Log and Fire Log. IWU Campus Police maintains a daily crime log of criminal offenses reported to IWU Police. The public log contains the last 60 days of information. Every entry into the crime log contains the nature, date, time, general location and disposition of the complaint (if known) for each crime. The log includes offenses that have occurred on campus, in or on a non-campus building or property, public property immediately adjacent and accessible to campus, or within the patrol jurisdiction of the campus police. This log is available for public inspection at the IWU Campus Police Office during normal business hours, 8 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

The fire log contains the following information regarding fires that occurred within on campus residential facilities and contains the date the fire was reported; the nature, date and time of the fire; and the general location of the fire. This log is available for public inspection at IWU Campus Police Office during normal business hours, 8 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

TIMELY WARNINGS AND EMERGENCY NOTIFICATIONS

Information on reported crimes or emergencies that pose serious or continuing threats to the campus community are disseminated through timely warnings and emergency notifications using the RAVE Mobile Alert System. These notifications are sent via text message, email, social media, and desktop alert messages. All IWU students and employees are automatically enrolled in the alert system with a confirmed IWU email address and cell phone number. When users are enrolled, they are automatically sent an email from RAVE giving them a user name and password to log in to their account. This account access allows the user to edit, add, or remove cell phone and email address. Users can log in to rave here: getrave.com/login/indwes

TIMELY WARNINGS

Indiana Wesleyan University Campus Police develops timely warning notices for the IWU community to notify members about serious crimes against people or emergencies that occur on or near campus when it is determined that the incident may pose a serious or ongoing threat. These warnings are disseminated through RAVE, as a feature of the IWU Alert. These notifications are in place to help keep students and employees informed about threats to their health and safety in a manner that allows them to protect themselves.

The Clery Act requires institutions to distribute timely warnings for the following crimes if there is an imminent danger to the community:	A timely warning will typically include the following, unless any of this information would risk compromising law enforcement efforts:
CRIMES 1. Criminal homicide 2. Aggravated assault 3. Sexual assault 4. Robbery involving force or violence Major incident of arson 5. Other crimes as determined necessary by the Chief of Police or designee	INFORMATION 1. Date and time or time frame of the incident 2. Brief description of the incident 3. Information that will promote safety and potentially aid in the prevention of similar crimes 4. Suspect description 5. Police agency contact information 6. Other information as deemed necessary by the Chief of Police or designee
The description of suspects will only be included if there is a sufficient amount of detail to describe the individual.

A TIMELY WARNING WILL NOT BE ISSUED FOR THE LISTED CRIMES IF:

1. The department apprehends the subject(s) and the threat of imminent danger for members of the community has been mitigated by the apprehension.
2. A report was not filed with IWU Campus Police, or the department was not notified of the crime in a manner that would allow the department to post a "timely" warning for the community. As a general guideline, a report that is filed more than five days after the date of the alleged incident may not allow Campus Police to post a "timely" warning to the community. Each situation will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis.

"Timely warnings" or "crime alerts" may be distributed for crimes that do not rise to the level of causing a serious or continuing threat to the university community but are situations the campus community should be aware of. Examples include, but are not limited to, a pattern of thefts or crimes on or off campus.

EMERGENCY NOTIFICATIONS

If a serious crime, a natural disaster, or a man-made emergency occurs that poses such risk, federal law requires the university to immediately notify the campus community or appropriate segments that may be affected. Upon receipt of this information and confirmation that such an incident is a significant emergency or a dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees occurring on campus, IWU Campus Police will immediately notify the campus community.

Incidents that may cause an immediate threat to the community may include, but are not limited to:

- ACTIVE SHOOTER
- BIOLOGICAL THREAT
- BOMB THREAT / SUSPICIOUS PACKAGES
- FIRE OR EXPLOSION
- GAS LEAK
- HAZARDOUS MATERIALS SPILL
- HOSTAGE/BARRICADE
- TORNADO
- STRUCTURAL DAMAGE TO IWU-OWNED PROPERTY

IWU CAMPUS POLICE DEPARTMENT

INDIANA WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY CAMPUS POLICE

Indiana Wesleyan University maintains a police department responsible for the safety and security of the Marion, Indiana Residential Campus. All police officers employed by the IWU Campus Police Department meet the standards established for police officers by the Indiana Law Enforcement Academy.

IWU Police Officers work part time for IWU. Officers have graduated from the Indiana Law Enforcement Academy. Training for IWU Police Officers is conducted in accordance with the Indiana Law Enforcement Academy standards.

All IWU Campus Police Officers have full arrest power and are equipped with all necessary tools to perform their specific job duties. On the Marion campus, Campus Police enforce all University regulations and laws of both Indiana Wesleyan University and the State of Indiana. For the regional centers, the Campus Police office serves as the general oversight office, helping to implement Clery regulations, emergency preparedness plans, and to ensure safety.

IWU Campus Police have an exceptional working relationship with the Grant County Sheriff's Department and the Marion City Police Department. In addition to these agencies, officers work cooperatively with all local and federal law enforcement agencies. These agencies routinely exchange crime-related reports and statistics and conduct cooperative patrols, investigations, and special events.

POLICE SERVICES DIVISION

The Police Services Division is the largest within IWU Campus Police and Emergency Management and is comprised of patrol operations, student security officers, and student dispatch. The purpose of Police Services is to provide law enforcement services and community assistance 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. Officers work shifts and, while on duty, they are assigned to patrol campus, provide building security, crime prevention, and work campus events. Officers respond to calls for law enforcement and general service, take reports of criminal incidents, respond to fire and intrusion alarms, assist in medical emergencies, and handle traffic accidents.

When a criminal report is made to IWU Campus Police, the initial responding officer will begin the investigation and follow-up as necessary. Incidents requiring more attention and resources are worked cooperatively with the detectives from the Grant County Sheriff's Office.

• STUDENT SECURITY OFFICERS

In addition to sworn police officers, IWU Campus Police operates a student-focused program called Student Security Officers (SSO). Student Security Officers are non-sworn IWU students who assist in a number of areas, including foot patrol, building security, traffic direction, parking enforcement, and enforcing university rules and regulations. SSO's also operate SafeRide, a free on-campus evening transportation service for IWU students. Student Security Officers provide vital support and are a proven asset to the department's community relations effort. The program is designed for students studying criminal justice who have plans to pursue a career in law enforcement. This position introduces the SSO to law enforcement procedures and university operations, while helping to finance their college education.

• STUDENT DISPATCHERS

The Campus Police office, located in Barnes Student Center, Room 148, is staffed by student dispatchers. Operating hours are Monday - Thursday 11:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., Friday 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Student Dispatchers are responsible for monitoring and dispatching officers as needed. They monitor alarms and coordinate the information flow between law enforcement and public safety agencies in the area.

CLERY COMPLIANCE

IWU Clery Act compliance is the responsibility of the Director of Campus Police and Emergency Management. Throughout the year, the Director works with the Campus Safety Advisory Group (CSAG), various law enforcement agencies across the state of Indiana and the United States to fulfill the obligation of Clery. Clery compliance involves the review of hundreds of reports a year, gathering statistics, and forwarding them to the appropriate personnel for processing and prosecution.

PARKING DIVISION

The Office of Campus Police and Emergency Management is responsible for the oversight and parking on the Marion Residential Campus and the National & Global Facilities located on 50th Street. Parking lots are monitored and enforced equitably across campus by police officers and student security officers. Certain campus parking lots may be monitored by a robotic parking enforcement unit operated by the Campus Police Department. All students and employees at the Marion Residential Campus, including the 50th Street facilities, are required to purchase a parking decal for their vehicle and register bicycle and scooters.

EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT

The Emergency Management Division assists the members of the campus community with response to emergencies. While it is impossible to produce a document or training that is all-inclusive, the Emergency Management Division addresses the most common emergencies within the Emergency Preparedness Guidelines. The Emergency Management Division works with Building Coordinators, a network of volunteer faculty and staff who work to create and enforce emergency response plans and procedures for their respective buildings.

To report a crime or incident that is not an emergency, parties should call the respective local law enforcement agency listed above. Initiating contact with the police will not only generate a law enforcement response as needed, but will dispatch fire and medical departments as necessary. Depending on the incident, reporting crimes and emergencies to law enforcement will generate a law enforcement response to include interviews, evidence collection, and reports. Whenever possible, the survivor or witness of the crime should call directly to report the incident, first-hand information is always more accurate and complete.

Police officers within your jurisdiction will respond, without delay, to all calls for police service. Emergency calls will take precedence; however, all calls will be answered as soon as possible. Remember when calling or 9-1-1 from a cell phone the dispatcher does not automatically get the callers exact location. It is important to tell the dispatcher who you are, where you are calling from, the phone number you are calling from, and what the nature of the problem is. 9-1-1 calls from cell phones may be directed to other law enforcement agencies within the area.

The success of any law enforcement agency and the safety of the IWU Campus is dependent on receiving timely and accurate reporting. IWU urges all victims and witnesses to report all crimes and suspicious activity in a timely manner. This will allow the police and university to address safety concerns and investigate allegations of criminal conduct. Reports made to the university that are within the Clery defined geography and meet the definition of reportable Clery crimes are included in this reports statistics.

The safety of IWU Campus, not only depends on the reporting of crimes, but also includes reporting any suspicious activity or person(s) seen in the parking lots, inside buildings or around academic buildings, and inside or around residence halls. These incidents or person(s) should be reported to police immediately. Accurate and prompt reporting ensures a strategic law enforcement response and ensures the release of timely information to assist in developing warnings for the university community.

MAXIENT ONLINE REPORTING

The Maxient system is an online tool in which all IWU students, faculty, and staff may report safety-related incidents. Members of the IWU community are encouraged to use the system after any safety-related incident. The report generated from Maxient will go to appropriate departments, such as Campus Police, Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards, and the Dean of Student Engagement. Campus Police and/or other IWU administration will review the incident and take appropriate actions.

Anyone may choose to report anonymously using Maxient. Steps for using Maxient:

1. The IWU Incident Reporting form can be found here.
2. Fill out "Background Information" as appropriate, noting that red asterisks (*) indicate required fields.
3. Check the appropriate box(es) under "Reason(s) for Report."
4. Enter known information for "Involved Parties" with specific attention to entering ID Number(s), if known.
5. Enter narrative/description of event, and attach any supporting documents/images that are pertinent to the incident.
6. Click Submit.

THE TITLE IX COORDINATOR

Title IX of the Education Amendments and Indiana Wesleyan University policy prohibits discrimination in the provision of services or benefits offered by the University based on gender. Any person (student, faculty or staff) who believes that discriminatory practices have been engaged in based upon gender may discuss their concerns and file complaints of possible violations of Title IX.

CONFIDENTIAL REPORTING

Amendments to 20 U.S.C. Section 1092(f) in 1998 clarified who is considered to be a Campus Security Authority. Campus pastoral counselors and campus professional counselors, when acting in their official capacity as an employee, are not considered to be a Campus Security Authority. When acting in their official capacity as an employee, they are not required to report crimes for inclusion in the annual disclosure of crime statistics.

Clery defines counselors as:

PASTORAL COUNSELOR

An employee of an institution, who is associated with a religious order or denomination, recognized by that religious order or denomination as someone who provides confidential counseling and who is functioning within the scope of that recognition as a pastoral counselor.

The Dean of Chapel and Regional Chaplains acting in their official capacity are confidential and are exempt from reporting obligations.

PROFESSIONAL COUNSELOR

A campus employee whose official responsibilities include providing psychological counseling to members of the campus community and who is functioning within the scope of his or her license or certification.

The only location on the IWU Campus with confidential counselors is in the Center for Student Success (CSS) located on the second floor of the Student Center. The staff at CSS encourages clients to report crimes to the police, student conduct, or the Title IX Coordinator. Licensed counselors, acting in their official capacity are exempt from reporting requirements.

CAMPUS SECURITY AUTHORITY (CSA'S)

Campus Security Authorities (CSAs) assist in the reporting of crimes on campus. CSA is a Clery-specific term that includes four groups of individuals or organizations within the university. These groups are defined by the Clery Act and include:

- Indiana Wesleyan University Police
- Any individual who has responsibility for campus security, but who does not work for the IWU Campus Police
- Any individual who monitors or controls access to IWU property
- Any official who has significant responsibility for student and campus activities, including but not limited to housing, campus activities and student discipline.

An official is defined as any person who has the authority and duty to take action or respond to particular issues on behalf of the institution. CSA's have been designated for all IWU owned and controlled properties and undergo annual training to ensure they are prepared for their responsibilities. Throughout the year, Campus Security Authorities report Clery reportable crimes via the online Maxient report form. (Maxient Online Report Form) Each of these reports is reviewed by the Clery compliance coordinator to confirm that it meets the requirements under the Clery Act.

Students, faculty, and staff of regional centers are encouraged to contact their CSA should any crime or safety-related incident happen on or around the IWU property.

Regional Centers: As a general rule, dial 9-1-1 or contact appropriate emergency responders before contacting your CSA.

ANNUAL DISCLOSURE OF CRIME STATISTICS

INDIANA-WESLEYAN
UNIVERSITY

A photograph of a modern, multi-story building with a glass facade, identified by large 3D lettering as Indiana Wesleyan University. The building is set against a clear sky. In the foreground, there is a landscaped area with various shrubs and a concrete curb. The entire image is overlaid with a semi-transparent red rectangle in the upper left corner, which contains the title text.

ANNUAL DISCLOSURE OF CRIME STATISTICS

In compliance with the Clery Act and other federal laws, the Indiana Wesleyan University yearly crime statistics are compiled on a calendar-year basis from January 1, 2025 to December 31, 2025. Crimes statistics reported within the table below are in accordance with the definitions of crimes provided by the FBI for use in the Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) system. This report includes statistics for the previous three years concerning crimes that occurred on campus and were reported to university police or campus security authorities. The report also includes statistics for referrals for campus disciplinary action for categories required under the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act. These categories include liquor, drug and weapon law violations. Statistical information for certain off-campus locations or property owned or controlled by the University, as well as public property within or immediately adjacent to campus, is gathered by the IWU Department of Public Safety after requesting such information from those local law enforcement agencies. Additional information and crime statistics are available under the Regional Campus section detailing all Indiana Wesleyan University site locations that are considered separate campus'.

The following crime statistics are specific to Indiana Wesleyan Universities National and Global Campus, and are reflective of the years 2023, 2024 and 2025. Most crimes are classified using the "hierarchy rule," which is the requirement in the FBI's UCR program that, for purposes of reporting crimes in that system. The Hierarchy Rule is used when more than one criminal offense is committed during a single incident; only the most serious offense is to be included in the institution's Clery Act statistics. An exception to the rule would apply in cases where a sexual assault and a murder occur in the same incident. The crimes added to this disclosure as part of the Violence against Women Act (dating violence, domestic violence and stalking) are also exempt from the hierarchy rule. The crime statistics also reflect no hierarchy rule for drug, liquor and weapon law violations.

CLERY REPORTABLE CRIME DEFINITIONS

The Clery Act divides all reportable crimes into four categories to assist with a better understanding of each type of crime. The four categories, as reflected below, are Criminal Offenses, Hate Crimes, Violence Against Women Act Offenses, and Arrest and Referrals for Disciplinary Action. The following definitions and statistics are reported in accordance with those guidelines.

CRIMINAL OFFENSES

This type of assault usually is accompanied by the use of a weapon or by means likely to produce death or great bodily harm. It is not necessary that injury result from an aggravated assault when a gun, knife or other weapon is used which could or probably would result in a serious potential injury if the crime were completed.

CLERY REPORTABLE CRIME DEFINITIONS

HATE CRIME DEFINITIONS

The Clery Act defines a Hate Crime as a criminal offense (larceny-theft, simple assault, intimidation, destruction/ damage/ vandalism of property, and other Clery Act crimes) that manifests evidence that the victim was intentionally selected because of the perpetrator's bias (race, ethnicity, national origin, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, religion and/or disability) against the victim.

In addition to any of the above Clery crimes, the following acts are reportable as Hate Crimes under the Clery Act. A crime is classified as a Hate Crime when the evidence suggests the victim was intentionally selected because of the victim's actual or perceived race, religion, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, ethnicity, national origin, or disability.

IWU is also required to report statistics for bias-related (hate) crimes by the type of bias as defined below for all of the above Clery crimes and the additional hate crimes listed here. Although there are many possible categories of bias, under the Clery Act, only the below eight categories are reported.

ADDITIONAL HATE CRIMES

- A. Simple Assault: An unlawful physical attack by one person upon another where neither the offender displays a weapon, nor the victim suffers obvious severe or aggravated bodily injury.
- B. Larceny: The unlawful taking, carrying, leading, or riding away of property from the possession or constructive possession of another.
- C. Intimidation: To unlawfully place another person in reasonable fear of bodily harm through the use of threatening words and/or other conduct, but without displaying a weapon or subjecting the victim to actual physical attack.
- D. Destruction/Damage/Vandalism of Property: To willfully or maliciously destroy, injure, disfigure, or deface any public or private property, real or personal, without the consent of the owner or person having custody or control by cutting, tearing, breaking, marking, painting, drawing, covering with filth, or any other such means as may be specified by local law.

BIAS CATEGORIES

A. Race: A preformed negative attitude toward a group of persons who possess common physical characteristics, e.g., color of skin, eyes, and/or hair; facial features, etc., genetically transmitted by descent and heredity which distinguish them as a distinct division of humankind, e.g., Asians, blacks or African Americans, whites.

B. Religion: A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a group of persons who share the same religious beliefs regarding the origin and purpose of the universe and the existence or nonexistence of a supreme being, e.g., Catholics, Jews, Protestants, atheists.

C. Sexual Orientation: A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a group of persons based on their actual or perceived sexual orientation. Sexual Orientation is the term for a person's physical, romantic, and/or emotional attraction to members of the same and/or opposite sex, including lesbian, gay, bisexual, and heterosexual (straight) individuals.

D. Gender: A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a person or group of persons based on their actual or perceived gender, e.g., male or female.

E. Gender Identity: A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a person or group of persons based on their actual or perceived gender identity, e.g., bias against transgender or gender non-conforming individuals. Gender non-conforming describes a person who does not conform to the gender-based expectations of society, e.g., a woman dressed in traditionally male clothing or a man wearing makeup. A gender non-conforming person may or may not be a lesbian, gay, bisexual, or transgender person but may be perceived as such.

F. Ethnicity: A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a group of people whose members identify with each other, through a common heritage, often consisting of a common language, common culture (often including a shared religion) and/or ideology that stresses common ancestry. The concept of ethnicity differs from the closely related term "race" in that "race" refers to a grouping based mostly upon biological criteria, while "ethnicity" also encompasses additional cultural factors.

G. National Origin: A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a group of people based on their actual or perceived country of birth. This bias may be against people that have a name or accent associated with a national origin group, participate in certain customs associated with a national origin group, or because they are married to or associate with people of a certain national origin.

H. Disability: A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a group of persons based on their physical or mental impairments, whether such disability is temporary or permanent, congenital or acquired by heredity, accident, injury, advanced age or illness.

UNFOUNDED CRIMES

Under the reauthorization of the Violence against Women Reauthorization Act regulations, an institution may withhold, or subsequently remove, a reported crime from its crime statistics in the rare situation where sworn or commissioned law enforcement personnel have fully investigated the reported crime and, based on the results of this full investigation and evidence, have made a formal determination that the crime report is false or baseless and therefore "unfounded." Only sworn or commissioned law enforcement personnel may "unfound" a crime report. The recovery of stolen property, the low value of stolen property, refusal of the victim to cooperate with the prosecution, and the failure to make an arrest do not "unfound" a crime report.

There were no unfounded reports for 2025.

CLERY GEOGRAPHY

Clery geography is defined by a unique set of definitions as defined by the Clery Act. The statistics reported in the following tables are published according to where they occurred. In addition to the Marion Residential Campus, Indiana Wesleyan University has several off-site locations. These locations are categorized as Regional Educational Sites and Remote Educational Sites. Remote Educational Sites statistics are included in the Marion Residential Campus statistics as non-campus property, and the Regional Educational Sites are separated by specific location. The following definitions are used to distinguish these various locations for statistical reporting purposes.

REGIONAL EDUCATION CENTERS

Regional locations are single-building or space within a building used for educational and/or student service purposes. IWU operates 10 locations throughout Indiana, Ohio, and Kentucky. IWU makes concerted efforts to keep these locations as safe as possible for all students, faculty and staff.

ON-CAMPUS

- (1) Any building or property owned or controlled by the institution within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area and used by the institution in direct support of, or in a manner related to, the institution's educational purposes, including residence halls; and
- (2) Any building or property that is within or reasonably contiguous to the area identified in paragraph (1), that is owned by the institution but controlled by another person, is frequently used by students, and supports institutional purposes (e.g., a food or retail vendor).

On-Campus Facilities include:

- Cincinnati Education Center
- Cleveland Independence Education Center
- Dayton Education Center
- Fort Wayne Education Center
- Greenwood Education Center
- Kokomo Education Center
- Louisville Education Center
- Marion National & Global
- Merrillville Education Center
- Indianapolis North Education Center

NON-CAMPUS PROPERTY

- (1) Any building or property owned or controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized by the institution, or
- (2) Any building or property owned or controlled by the institution that is used in direct support of, or in relation to, the institution's educational purposes, is frequently used by students, and is not within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area of the institution.

REMOTE LOCATIONS

The University also conducts classes in smaller settings such as hotels, hospitals, community buildings, etc. that are not owned or directly controlled by Indiana Wesleyan University. These are referred to as remote locations. IWU takes measures to ensure these locations are safe to conduct educational activities prior to starting classes. IWU does not provide CSA's for such locations, and the building manager/owner is responsible for safety issues. IWU solicits crime statistics from local police at remote locations. Once substantiated, these statistics are included in the Annual Security Report. If it is concluded by the CSAG that a remote site is unsafe, it may be discontinued for educational purposes. Students at remote locations are encouraged to help ensure their personal safety by becoming familiar with emergency exits and following the Crime Prevention Tips.

MAINTAINING A DRUG & ALCOHOL FREE CAMPUS

MAINTAINING A DRUG AND ALCOHOL FREE CAMPUS

Indiana Wesleyan University is committed to maintaining a safe, healthy and productive environment for all of its employees, students and the campus community with established policies addressing alcohol and drug use. Those found to be in violation of these policies risk disciplinary actions up to and including expulsion or termination from IWU, as well as prosecution by local, state, or federal law enforcement agencies. Abuse of alcohol and controlled substances can seriously impair a person's health and ability to work and study. IWU promotes an environment that rejects substance abuse as an acceptable lifestyle. The university shows commitment to the students and employees of IWU by providing resources for the prevention or treatment of substance abuse.

STUDENT SERVICES

Students who need assistance are encouraged to contact their Regional Education Center site coordinator. Students are expected to not possess drugs or alcohol, or arrive at an Educational Center under the influence of drugs or alcohol.

EMPLOYEE SERVICES

IWU is committed to protecting the health and well-being of all employees by providing a safe and drug-free environment. We require our employees to be free of illegal drugs or alcohol in the workplace. All employees are required to sign a Community Life Style Statement prohibiting the use of tobacco, alcohol, and controlled substances. Employees struggling with substance use or abuse will be referred by the Office of Graduate Counseling to counseling practices and other services outside of the University. For those employees who participate in the University-endorsed health insurance plan, coverage is available for select drug and alcohol rehabilitation programs.

IWU POLICIES PERTAINING TO ALCOHOL AND DRUGS

In addition to the Employee Community Lifestyle Statement, the Faculty and Employee Handbooks strictly prohibit the use, sale, delivery, possession and consumption of alcoholic beverages or drugs in or on any property owned or controlled by the university or while on University business. Penalties for manufacturing and sale of a controlled substance are more severe, resulting in fines and imprisonment.

BURDEN OF PROOF

The burden and standard of proof for the IWU Student Handbook is a "preponderance of the evidence." A showing of a preponderance of the evidence means it is more likely than not that the violation was committed by the person charged. This standard is less than that of the criminal court, which is "beyond a reasonable doubt."

ALCOHOL AND DRUG EDUCATION

IWU is a substance free institution and as a result, requires that all students and employees refrain from the use of drugs and alcohol. All employees and students sign a Community Lifestyle Agreement stating they will refrain from the use of alcohol regardless of age and location.

Indiana Wesleyan University National & Global serves a majority of online, adult students who are often spread across the country. There are limited in person classes that are offered at specific Regional Education Centers. Due to the students status and typically age of the student, there is limited education and prevention that is given to these students. All students are given access to University policies, reporting process, and necessary resources.

Through the publication of this document, and notification to all students about it, this area also serves as a way for IWU National & Global to educate their students on these topics.

IWU SENSITIVE CRIMES, POLICES, AND INDIANA LAWS

SEXUAL ASSAULT, DOMESTIC/DATING VIOLENCE, AND STALKING

Indiana Wesleyan University has a zero tolerance policy towards sensitive crimes, which include but are not limited to sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. These crimes will not be tolerated on campus and are a violation of state law, the student handbook, and university policy. All reported incidents are investigated within the university and may be reported to local law enforcement with the cooperation of the survivor.

Members of the IWU community, guests, and visitors have the right to be free from sexual misconduct. Accordingly, all members of the campus community are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that does not infringe upon the rights of others. IWU policies and Student Handbook prohibit sexually violent acts, termed "Sexual Misconduct" within the Student Handbook. Many of these "misconducts" can be crimes under Indiana Law. Sexual misconduct includes, but is not limited to, non-consensual sexual intercourse, non-consensual sexual contact, sexual exploitation, interpersonal/relationship violence, sex/gender-based stalking, and sexual harassment. While IWU utilizes different standards and definitions than the Indiana Code, sexual misconduct often overlaps with the crimes of rape, sexual assault, sexual harassment, stalking, dating violence, and domestic violence. Federal laws, specifically Title IX, and the Clery Act, which mandates the contents of this report, protect victims of these behaviors.

It is the policy of IWU not to notify law enforcement when sexual misconduct occurs, unless a survivor wishes or there is an emergency threat to health or safety. Survivors have the option to not notify law enforcement, but are always encouraged to report incidents to the police. They also have the option of reporting to any university employee, the Title IX Coordinator, Dean of Students Office, Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards, a Campus Security Authority, or confidentially at the Dean of Chapels office or Center for Student Success. When a report is made to any university employee, except those at the Chapel or Center for Student Success, the employee is required to submit a report using the online Maxient reporting form. The report is sent directly the Title IX coordinator or Deputy Coordinator for follow up and the Clery Compliance Coordinator for consideration of Timely Warning notices and statistical purposes.

SAFETY AFTER AN INCIDENT

If you are the survivor of any of the crimes of sexual misconduct, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking, some or all of these safety suggestions may guide you after an incident has occurred:

1. Go to a safe place and speak with someone you trust. Tell this person what happened. If there is any immediate danger, contact IWU Police if you are on campus or call 911 if you are off campus.
2. Consider immediate professional support (counseling, medical services, etc.) to assist you in the crisis
3. For your safety and well-being, immediate medical attention is encouraged. Further, being examined as soon as possible, ideally within 120 hours, is important in the case of rape or sexual assault. The hospital will arrange for a specific medical examination at no charge or can work with you to arrange state reimbursement.
 - To preserve evidence, it is recommended that you do not bathe, shower, douche, eat, drink, smoke, brush your teeth, urinate, defecate, or change clothes before receiving medical attention. Even if you have already taken any of these actions, you are still encouraged to have prompt medical care and evidence may still be recoverable.
 - Typically, if police are involved or will be involved, they will obtain evidence from the scene and it is best to leave things undisturbed until their arrival. They will gather bedding, linens or unlaundered clothing, and any other pertinent articles that may be used for evidence. It is best to allow police to secure items in evidence containers, but if you are involved in transmission of items of evidence, such as to the hospital, secure them in a clean paper bag or clean sheet to avoid contamination.
 - If you have physical injuries, photograph or have them photographed, with a date stamp on the photo.
 - Record the names of any witnesses and their contact information. This information may be helpful as proof of a crime, to obtain an order of protection, or to offer proof of a campus policy violation.

- Try to memorize details (e.g., physical description, names, license plate number, car description, etc.), or even better, write notes to remind you of details, if you have time and the ability to do so.
 - If you obtain external orders of protection (e.g., restraining orders, injunctions, protection from abuse), please notify IWU Police or the campus Title IX Coordinator so that those orders can be observed on campus.
4. If you are on campus during regular business hours, you may go to the Center for Student Success for confidential support and guidance. After regular business hours, or in any situation where a victim wishes, local resources are also available and may be able to provide confidential assistance by contacting Hands of Hope, 101 S. Washington St, Marion, IN or 765-664-0701.
 5. Contact the Dean of Students Office, Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards, or the Title IX Coordinator if you need assistance with university concerns, such as no-contact orders or other protective measures. The Grant County Victim Advocate will also assist in any needed advocacy for students who wish to obtain protective or restraining orders from local authorities. IWU is able to offer reasonable academic support, changes to living arrangements, transportation resources or modifications, escorts, no contact orders, counseling services access, and other supports and resources as needed by a victim.

IWU TERMS AND DEFINITIONS

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

Sexual Assault

Sexual assault is coercion or attempted coercion with or without the use of physical force for the purpose of sexual relations; or sexual contact or attempted contact to which any party involved does not give full and free consent. Force may include, but is not limited to, the use or display of a weapon, physical battering, or the immobilization of the other person. Consent shall be defined as the act of willingly and verbally agreeing to engage in specific sexual contact or conduct. Psychologically pressuring or coercing an individual or any attempt to take advantage of an individual under duress or when incapable of making a decision on his or her own is a direct violation of this policy. This includes situations in which an individual is incapacitated by alcohol, drugs, and/or prescribed medications.

Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is a form of misconduct that undermines the integrity of the academic environment. Sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome, gender-based conduct that is sufficiently severe, persistent, or pervasive that it unreasonably interferes with, denies, or limits someone's ability to participate in, or benefit from the University's educational program and/or activities. A University employee, other students, as well as non-employee third parties can carry out sexual harassment. Both male and female students can be victims of sexual harassment, and the harasser and the victim can be of the same gender.

Sexual harassment falls under three categories:

Quid pro quo sexual harassment exists when there are: (1) unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature; and (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct results in adverse educational actions. An example of quid pro quo sexual harassment would be a faculty member lowering a student's grade for not submitting to sexual advances.

Hostile environment sexual harassment exists when an individual creates a contentious environment that is sufficiently serious enough that it denies or limits a student's ability to participate in or benefit from the University's programs. The conduct does not necessarily have to be repetitive. If sufficiently severe, single or isolated incidents can create a hostile environment.

Retaliatory harassment is an adverse action taken against an individual because of a person's participation in a complaint or investigation of discrimination or sexual misconduct.

Examples of conduct that may be unlawful sexual harassment include:

- The distribution or showing of emails, text messages, pictures, or electronic content of a sexual nature
- Propositioning or pressuring an individual for sexual activity
- Displaying or distributing sexually explicit drawings, pictures, or written materials

- Touching of a sexual nature
- Performing sexual gestures or touching oneself in front of others
- Spreading sexual rumors or describing sexual experiences
- Telling sexual jokes

Any complaints or inquiries regarding sexual harassment of a student by an officer, faculty or staff member, or another student should be brought to the immediate attention of the Title IX coordinator or deputy Title IX coordinator. IWU will investigate such claims promptly and thoroughly. If harassment is established, IWU will discipline the offender. Disciplinary action for violations of this policy can range from verbal or written warnings, up to and including immediate termination from employment or dismissal from IWU.

NON-CONSENSUAL SEXUAL CONTACT

Non-Consensual Sexual Contact is any intentional sexual touching, however slight, with any object, by a man or a woman upon a man or a woman, that is without consent and/or by force.

Sexual Contact includes: intentional contact with the breasts, buttock, groin, or genitals, or touching another with any of these body parts, or making another touch you or themselves with or on any of these body parts; any intentional bodily contact in a sexual manner, including with bodily fluids, though not involving contact with/of/by breasts, buttocks, groin, genitals, mouth or other orifice.

SEXUAL EXPLOITATION

Sexual exploitation occurs when a student takes non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for his/her own advantage or benefit, or to benefit or advantage anyone other than the one being exploited, and that behavior does not otherwise constitute one of other sexual misconduct offenses.

Examples of sexual exploitation include, but are not limited to:

- Invasion of sexual privacy
- Prostituting another student
- Non-consensual video or audio-taping of sexual activity
- Going beyond the boundaries of consent (such as letting your friends hide in the closet to watch a sexual experience)
- Engaging in voyeurism
- Knowingly transmitting a sexually transmitted disease/Infection or HIV to another
- Exposing one's genitals in non-consensual circumstances; inducing another to expose their genital
- Sexually-based stalking and/or bullying may also be forms of sexual exploitation

DOMESTIC / DATING VIOLENCE

IWU uses the legal definitions of Domestic and Dating violence in conjunction with the Student Handbook policies of Assault and Harm to Person.

Assault: A person commits an offense of assault by intentionally, knowingly or recklessly causing bodily injury to another, or intentionally or knowingly causing another to reasonably fear imminent bodily injury.

Harm to Person: No student shall cause physical harm or threaten to cause physical harm to any person. In addition, no student shall take any action which creates a danger to the health, safety, or personal well-being of others.

Dating Violence: violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:

- The length of the relationship
- The type of the relationship
- The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship

Domestic Violence: includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabiting with or has cohabited with the victim as a spouse, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving rent monies, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction.

Stalking: intentional, repetitious, or continuous actions directed at a specific person, individuals related/connected to that person, or a group of people, which would cause a reasonable person to feel frightened, harassed, threatened, or intimidated is prohibited. Examples include, but are not limited to, unwelcome communication (e.g. face-to-face communication, electronic communication, communicating through a third-party, written letter, gifts, etc...), threatening or obscene gestures, and following a person or group of people.

Consent: The act of willingly and verbally agreeing to engage in specific sexual contact or conduct. Psychologically pressuring or coercing an individual or any attempt to take advantage of an individual under duress or when incapable of making a decision on his or her own is a direct violation of this policy. This includes situations in which an individual is incapacitated by alcohol, drugs, and/or prescribed medications.

INDIANA LAWS AND DEFINITIONS

CRIMINAL SEXUAL ASSAULT

Indiana Code 35-42-2-1.3

A person commits criminal sexual assault when they knowingly or intentionally have sexual intercourse with another person or knowingly or intentionally cause another person to perform or submit to other sexual conduct (IC 35-31.5-2-221.5) when:

1. The other person is compelled by force or imminent threat of force;
2. The other person is unaware that the sexual intercourse or other sexual conduct is occurring; or
3. The other person is so mentally disabled or deficient that consent to sexual intercourse or other sexual conduct cannot be given.

Criminal Sexual Assault is a Level 3 Felony. (There are aggravating factors that could enhance the felony level).

DOMESTIC BATTERY

Indiana Code 35-42-1-3

A person commits domestic battery if they knowingly or intentionally:

1. Touch a family or household member in a rude, insolent, or angry manner; or
2. In a rude, insolent, or angry manner places any bodily fluid or waste on a family or household member;
3. Cause bodily injury

Domestic battery is a Class A misdemeanor. (There are aggravating factors that could enhance the offense to felony level).

CRIMINAL STALKING

Indiana Code 35-45-10-1, 35-45-10-5

A person commits stalking when they knowingly engage in or there is an intentional course of conduct involving repeated or continuing harassment of another person that would cause a reasonable person to feel terrorized, frightened, intimidated, or threatened and that actually causes the victim to feel terrorized, frightened, intimidated, or threatened. The term does not include statutorily or constitutionally protected activity.

Criminal Stalking is a Level 6 Felony (There are aggravating factors that could enhance the felony level).

CONSENT

Indiana Code 35-42-4-9

The age of consent in Indiana is 16; however, Indiana has a "Romeo and Juliet law" that permits 14 and 15 year olds to engage in non-forced sexual activity with peers who are no more than 4 years older than themselves.

KENTUCKY LAWS AND DEFINITIONS

CRIMINAL SEXUAL ASSAULT

Sexually touching someone in an unwanted or offensive way generally constitutes sexual assault. In Kentucky, this crime is called "sexual abuse" and it is divided into three separate crimes depending on the circumstances surrounding the act.

First-Degree Sexual Abuse:

1. Subjecting another person to sexual contact by forcible compulsion
2. Engaging in sexual contact with someone who is incapable of consenting either because they are physically helpless, less than 12 years old, or mentally incapacitated
3. Offender is 21 years old or older and the victim is less than 16 and the victim is subjected to sexual contact, the offender masturbates in the victim's presence, or the offender masturbates while the victim can see or hear him or her via electronic means, or
4. Offender is in a position of authority or a position of special trust (defined in section 532.045), and subjects a victim under 18 years old to engage in sexual contact or masturbates in the presence of the minor (either in person or via electronic means)

Second-Degree Sexual Abuse

1. Subjecting another person to sexual contact who isn't capable of consenting due to an intellectual disability
2. Offender is between 18 and 21 years old and subjects a victim, who is less than 16 years old, to sexual contact
3. Offender works for the Department of Corrections and is at least 18 years old and subjects someone (who they know is incarcerated) to sexual contact

DOMESTIC BATTERY

"Domestic violence and abuse" means physical injury, serious physical injury, sexual abuse, assault, or the infliction of fear of imminent physical injury, serious physical injury, sexual abuse, or assault between family members or members of an unmarried couple.

STALKING

To "stalk" means to engage in an intentional course of conduct:

1. Directed at a specific person or persons;
2. Which seriously alarms, annoys, intimidates, or harasses the person or persons; and
3. Which serves no legitimate purpose.

The course of conduct shall be that which would cause a reasonable person to suffer substantial mental distress.

CONSENT

Under Kentucky's rape and sexual assault laws, the victim must not have consented to the sexual contact. It is important to note that a lack of consent can result from:

- Forcible compulsion
- Incapacity to consent, or
- (If the charge is for sexual abuse) Any situation in which the victim doesn't acquiesce (either expressly or impliedly) to the offender's conduct

Additionally, the following categories of people are legally incapable of giving consent in Kentucky:

- Under 16 years old
- Individuals with an intellectual disability or a mental illness
- Mentally incapacitated
- Physically helpless, or
- People under the care or custody of a state or local agency due to a court order (and the offender is employed by the state or local agency)

OHIO LAWS AND DEFINITIONS

CRIMINAL SEXUAL ASSAULT

No person shall engage in sexual conduct with another who is not the spouse of the offender or who is the spouse of the offender but is living separate and apart from the offender, when any of the following applies:

1. For the purpose of preventing resistance, the offender substantially impairs the other person's judgment or control by administering any drug, intoxicant, or controlled substance to the other person surreptitiously or by force, threat of force, or deception.
2. The other person is less than thirteen years of age, whether or not the offender knows the age of the other person.
3. The other person's ability to resist or consent is substantially impaired because of a mental or physical condition or because of advanced age, and the offender knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the other person's ability to resist or consent is substantially impaired because of a mental or physical condition or because of advanced age.
4. No person shall engage in sexual conduct with another when the offender purposely compels the other person to submit by force or threat of force.

DOMESTIC BATTERY

Knowingly causing or attempting to cause physical harm to a family or household member and/or recklessly causing serious physical harm to a family or household member.

Using threat of force or force to knowingly cause a family or household member to believe that you will cause imminent physical harm to the family or household member.

A person who is residing or has resided with the offender and any of the following:

- A spouse, a person living as a spouse, or a former spouse;
- A parent, foster parent, or a child of the offender, or another person related to the offender;
- A parent or a child of a spouse, person living as a spouse, or former spouse of the offender, or another person related to a spouse, person living as a spouse, or former spouse of the offender.
- The natural parent of any child of whom the offender is the other natural parent or is the putative other natural parent.
- A person who is living or has lived with the offender in a common law marital relationship, who otherwise is cohabiting with the offender, or who otherwise has cohabited with the offender within five years prior to the date of domestic violence incident.

STALKING

Knowingly causing another fear of physical harm or mental distress

CONSENT

Ohio does not provide a definition for consent. However, submission to sexual conduct as a result of fear may be sufficient in proving lack of consent as physical force or threat of physical force need not be shown to prove rape, merely the overcoming of the victim's will by fear or duress.

IWU SENSITIVE CRIMES POLICIES

In addition to the above Indiana criminal laws, IWU has adopted several policies to address these incidents from an administrative level. In this section, you will see a summary of those policies and how they relate to incidents involving sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking.

NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

Indiana Wesleyan University is committed to equal opportunity in employment and education. Indiana Wesleyan University admits students and employees of any race, sex, color, national or ethnic origin, disability, age, service in the military, or any other status protected by law.

They have access to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally made available to students or employees at the University. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, national or ethnic origin, disability, or age, service in the military, or any other status protected by law, in the administration of its educational policies, scholarship and loan programs, athletic and other administered programs, and all phases of employment, including hiring, promotion, demotion, treatment during employment, rates of pay, or other compensation, and termination of employment.

As an equal opportunity employer, Indiana Wesleyan University is committed to compliance with Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 or other federal, state, or local laws or executive orders except as claimed in a filed religious exemption.

Inquiries or complaints should be addressed to the Vice President for Business Affairs or Executive Director for Human Resources at Indiana Wesleyan University. Indiana Wesleyan University will take appropriate steps to provide reasonable accommodations upon request to qualified individuals with disabilities so long as doing so does not cause Indiana Wesleyan University an undue hardship.

CONSENSUAL RELATIONSHIPS POLICY

Romantic and/or sexual relationships between regular employees and students, and between supervisors and subordinate employees is strictly prohibited. Such relationships have the potential for adverse consequences, including the filing of charges of sexual harassment, confidentiality lapses, uncomfortable working relationships, morale problems among other employees, and even the appearance of impropriety.

Given the fundamentally asymmetric nature of the relationship where one party has the power to affect evaluations, promotions, salary increases, or other recommendations, the apparent consensual nature of the relationship is inherently suspect.

Even when both parties have consented to the relationship, there may be perceptions of conflict of interest as well as unfair treatment of others. Such perceptions undermine the atmosphere of trust essential to the educational process or the employment relationship.

WORKPLACE VIOLENCE POLICY

Indiana Wesleyan University (IWU) is committed to preventing violence in the workplace and maintaining a safe work environment. IWU will not tolerate any conduct that threatens, intimidates, or coerces an employee, customer, or member of the public at any time, including off-duty periods. Additionally, firearms, weapons, and other dangerous or hazardous devices or substances are strictly prohibited from the premises of IWU without proper authorization.

All suspicious individuals or activities, including actual or threats of violence, both direct and indirect, should immediately be reported to Campus Police and then to your supervisor or any other member of management.

Any employee determined to have participated in any threatened or actual violence, or other conduct that violates these guidelines, will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

All persons who apply for or obtain a protective or restraining order which lists Indiana Wesleyan University locations as being protected areas, must provide to Campus Police and his or her respective Vice President, a copy of the petition and declarations used to seek the order and a copy of any order, temporary or permanent, issued by any court.

SENSITIVE CRIMES POLICY

Indiana Wesleyan University has a zero tolerance policy towards sensitive crimes, which include but are not limited to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. All reported incidents will be fully investigated within the university and may be reported to local law enforcement.

OVERVIEW

Members of the IWU community, guests, and visitors have the right to be free from sexual misconduct. Accordingly, all members of the campus community are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that does not infringe upon the rights of others. As part of the University's zero tolerance policy for sexual misconduct, when an allegation of misconduct is brought to an appropriate IWU official's attention, and a respondent is found to have violated this policy, serious sanctions will be used to reasonably ensure that such actions are never repeated. This policy has been developed to reaffirm these principles and to provide recourse for those individuals whose rights have been violated. This policy is intended to define community expectations and to establish a mechanism for determining when those expectations have been violated.

The University reserves the right to take whatever measures it deems necessary in response to an allegation of sexual misconduct in order to protect students' rights and personal safety, including a no-contact order, restraining order, criminal trespass notice, modifying academic and living situations if requested and reasonably available. Not all forms of sexual misconduct will be deemed to be equally serious offenses, and the University reserves the right to impose different sanctions, ranging from verbal warning to expulsion depending on the severity of the offense. The University will consider the concerns and rights of both the complainant and the person accused of sexual misconduct.

Other related Offenses include but are not limited to:

1. Sexual Harassment
2. Non-Consensual Sexual Contact (or attempts to commit same)
3. Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse (or attempts to commit same)
4. Sexual Exploitation
5. Domestic Violence
6. Dating Violence
7. Stalking

REPORTING PROCEDURES

The first priority of a victim of a sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence or stalking should be to get to a place of safety. They should then obtain necessary medical treatment by going to the nearest emergency room (Marion General Hospital) or by calling 911. IWU Campus Police strongly advocates that a victim of a crime report the incident in a timely manner.

When a victim of sexual assault, dating/domestic violence or stalking contacts IWU Campus Police, the victim may choose for the investigation to be pursued through the criminal justice system, the University system or both. The victim has the right to not notify police and can work solely with the Title IX Coordinator.

THE FOLLOWING ARE THE OPTIONS FOR REPORTING:

FILE A CRIMINAL COMPLAINT REPORT WITH LAW ENFORCEMENT

Any survivor of a crime that occurred on IWU property in Marion may contact IWU Campus Police. For crimes that may have occurred off campus at on of the Regional Education Centers, please contact the respective local law enforcement agency. An investigation will begin. Important evidence, critical in a criminal process, will be collected. The police officers may assist with getting appropriate medical treatment and will help determine the available university resources.

HAVE STAFF ASSIST YOU IN FILING THE REPORT WITH LAW ENFORCEMENT

Faculty and staff at the university may accompany an individual through the process of filing a police report.

REPORT ONLY TO THE UNIVERSITY

If a reporting party does not wish to pursue criminal charges or file a police report, he or she is encouraged to speak with any member of the faculty or staff trained to assist in filing a report with the university. Whether or not a report is filed with law enforcement, the university offers a variety of options for assistance and will work to address any factors which may have led to the crime.

CONFIDENTIAL UNIVERSITY REPORTING

Students desiring confidentiality of an incident should:

- 1. Fill out an incident report using "Maxient" online reporting system.
- 2. Speak with free on-campus counselors.
- 3. Speak with the IWU Campus Victims Advocate Dr. Katti Sneed (765-677-3305 or katti.sneed@indwes.edu). Students can also expect confidentiality from the IWU Health Center. (Information shared with Ms. Sneed will be forwarded for Clery Compliance, no names or specific personal identifiable information will be given).

NON-CONFIDENTIAL UNIVERSITY REPORTING

Students are encouraged to speak to officials of the institution to make formal reports of incidents. The following people are considered “responsible employees”. Notice to them is official notice to the institution. Formal reporting means that only people who need to know will be told and information will be shared only as necessary with investigators, witnesses, and the accused individual.

1. Director of Student Conduct and Community Standards
2. Dean of Students
3. Dean for Residential Learning
4. Resident Directors
5. Campus Police
6. Or complete an incident report at cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?IndianaWesleyanUniv

WHAT’S THE DIFFERENCE?

There are differences in the options chosen to report an incident. When police are notified and begin an investigation, time is a critical factor for evidence collection and preservation. Filing a police report will not obligate the victim to prosecute, nor will it subject the victim to scrutiny or judgmental opinions from officers.

FILING A POLICE REPORT WILL:

1. Ensure that a victim receives the necessary medical treatment and tests, at no expense to the victim.
2. Provide the opportunity for collection of evidence helpful in prosecution, which cannot be obtained later (ideally a victim of sexual assault should not wash, douche, use the toilet or change clothing prior to the medical exam).
3. Ensure the victim has access to free, confidential counseling from counselors specifically trained in sexual assault crisis intervention.

IWU Campus Police works with the Dean of Students Office, Title IX Coordinator, and Student Conduct and Community Standards to ensure victims are afforded all available options, resources, and support through the process. Assistance is available if the victim would like to notify other authorities including local law enforcement, seek medical attention or counseling, or request other resources. Student victims have the option to change their academic and/or on-campus living situations after an alleged incident of sexual assault, dating/ domestic violence or stalking if such changes are reasonably available.

MANDATORY REPORTER POLICY

The following is a summary of the IWU Mandatory Reporter Policy.

APPLICABLE LAWS

There are three federal laws that establish responsibilities for employees to report certain types of crimes and incidents, especially sexual misconduct—the Clery Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, and Title IX. Each of these areas of federal law has a different purpose, but generally, the laws are intended to protect members of the University community, visitors, and guests from criminal and discriminatory behavior. The responsibilities established by these laws give rise to the term “mandatory reporter.”

YOUR DUTY

To make it easier to know what you need to do, the University defines ALL EMPLOYEES as mandatory reporters EXCEPT Health Center nurses and physicians, the Victim Advocate Liaison, Center for Student Success counselors, Graduate Clinic counselors and trainees, Spiritcare Chaplains, the Dean of the Chapel, and the Campus Pastor. As a mandatory reporter, if you become aware of possible discrimination, including harassment, sexual misconduct, or a crime, you MUST inform the University by contacting one of the Designated Reporting Offices below or utilizing either the University Incident Reporting System or the Ethics Hotline. Reporting is required regardless of whether the discrimination involves students, faculty, staff, or visitors to the University.

When you report, you may be able to initially withhold personally identifiable information (the name of the victim, the name of the accused individual, and other identifying details about witnesses, location, etc.), in cases where the alleged victim is hesitant to have a formal report made. Subsequently, campus officials may need additional information from you. Your job is to cooperate fully with campus officials, providing any information/details requested.

SPEAKING WITH VICTIMS/WITNESSES

In speaking with a victim or witness, you SHOULD NOT promise confidentiality. Faculty and staff members do not have a special privilege or ability to maintain the confidentiality of reports shared with them. If someone begins to discuss an incident of discrimination, harassment, and/or sexual misconduct, you might want to say something like the following:

I appreciate your willingness to share this information with me. Please know that I am here to help in any way that I can. If you would like to file a formal complaint with the University, I will help you connect with [the appropriate Designated Reporting Office], so that it can begin investigating this matter.

It is important that you understand that I cannot promise to keep what you share confidential. If you are still comfortable speaking with me, I am here to listen. If not, please let me help you connect with one of the following University's confidential resources:

- Victim Advocate Liaison 765-677-3350
- Indianapolis Graduate Counseling 317-713-6154
- Marion Graduate Counseling Clinic 765-677-2571

EDUCATION PREVENTION AND AWARENESS

In an effort to reduce the risk of sexual misconduct as well as the crimes of rape, sexual assault, sexual harassment, stalking, dating violence, and domestic violence occurring among its students, IWU utilizes a range of campaigns, strategies, and initiatives to promote awareness, educational, risk reduction, and prevention programming.

It is the policy of IWU to offer programming to identify and prevent domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking each year. Indiana Wesleyan University National & Global serves a majority of online, adult students who are often spread across the country. There are limited in person classes that are offered at specific Regional Education Centers. Due to the students status and typically age of the student, there is limited education and prevention that is given to these students. All students are given access to University policies, reporting process, and necessary resources.

Through the publication of this document, and notification to all students about it, this area also serves as a way for IWU National & Global to educate their students on these topics.

BYSTANDER INTERVENTION

Bystander engagement is encouraged through safe and positive intervention techniques and by empowering third-party intervention and prevention such as calling for help, using intervention-based apps, identifying allies, and/or creating distractions. Bystander empowerment training highlights the need for those who intervene to ensure their own safety in the intervention techniques they choose, and motivates them to intervene as stakeholders in the safety of the community when others might choose to be bystanders.

The bystander effect is a phenomenon in which the greater the number of people present, the less likely individuals are to help a person in distress. When an emergency situation occurs, observers are more likely to take action if there are few or no other witnesses.

A person or group of people in the position of bystanders can intervene in a safe and positive way to prevent harm or provide resources to a person in need. It only takes one person to call the police, yell loudly to get someone's attention or step in and intervene.

Additional bystander options:

- Before it even happens, listen up for rape jokes and myths, and sexist language. Don't laugh or participate.
- Create a diversion and intervene when needed. Even if the person who seems to be in trouble is a stranger, a bystander can still help. Get him or her to a safe place.

Why should you intervene?

- It is the right thing to do
- You would want someone to help you
- Someone needed help
- Friends should look out for each other
- So the situation won't escalate

How to Intervene

- See something happening
- Decide it's a problem
- Decide to help
- Know what to do
- Do something or get help

EMPLOYEE TRAINING

IWU has a mandatory online active shooter and Title IX (domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking) training for all employees. The training is conducted annually and requires the participant to complete a quiz at the end of each session. All Campus Security Authorities are given training on the Clery Act and their reporting obligations.

PREVENTION STRATEGIES

Throughout the year in several different capacities and in various forms, IWU provides education on strategies to lessen the chances of becoming a victim.

Strategies to prevent victimization:

- Understand and respect your partner's boundaries.
- Those who use sexually callous language are more likely to perpetrate sexual assault. Speak up when you hear others talk this way.
- Know your own sexual boundaries.
- Learn more about how men and women communicate differently.
- Make sure you have consent. Consent is a clear and freely given yes, not the absence of a no. People who are incapacitated by alcohol or drugs cannot give consent.

Strategies to protect yourself:

- Practice being assertive about your boundaries.
- If saying NO or STOP is too hard, consider creating a diversion so you can leave.
- Enroll in a self-defense program.
- Set your drinking limits before you start drinking.
- Get your own drinks; don't leave your drink unattended, or let someone continually fill your cup.

Signs of an abusive relationship:

- Calls you names, insults you or continually criticizes you.
- Does not trust you and acts possessive or jealous.
- Tries to isolate you from family or friends.
- Monitors where you go, whom you call, and whom you spend time with.
- IM, text messages, and calls you obsessively to find out where you are and what you are doing.
- Controls finances or refuses to share money.
- Punishes you by withholding affection.
- Expects you to ask permission.
- Threatens to hurt you, your family, your pets or your belongings.
- Threatens and/or uses a weapon against you.
- Has ever forced, coerced or manipulated you into having sex or performing sexual acts.
- Accuses you of cheating or is often jealous of your relationships with others.
- Has ever trapped you in your apartment or room and kept you from leaving.

Remember, sexual assault, dating violence, and stalking are never the fault of the victim; they are the choice of the perpetrator.

SEX OFFENDER REGISTRY

In accordance to the Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act of 2000, which amends the Jacob Wetterling Crimes Against Children and Sexually Violent Offender Registration Act, the Jeanne Clery Act and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. Since the enactment of this legislation, a series of amendments provides for additional registrable offenses.

Presently known as the Sex Offender and Child Murderer Community Notification law, all individuals convicted of criminal sex offenses against victims of any age are required to register with the law enforcement agency jurisdiction in which they reside. All sex offenders are required to register in the state of Indiana and to provide notice to each institution of higher education in Indiana at which the person is employed, carries out a vocation or is a student.

The Indiana Sex and Violent Offender Registry database is updated daily and allows searching by name, address, city, zip code, phone number, email address, and other internet names..

The Kentucky Sex Offender Registry database is updated daily and allows searching by name, email address, address, city, county, zip code, or neighborhood.

The Ohio Sex Offender Registry database is updated daily and allows searching by name, address, city, zip code, phone number, email address, and other internet names.

The National Sex Offender Public Website database is updated daily and allows searching by name, address, city, and zip code.

THE INVESTIGATION AND HEARING PROCESS

The following pages provide an in-depth look at the investigation and hearing processes of reported incidents of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking through the university and the student conduct process. IWU will, upon written request, disclose to the victim of a crime of violence, or a non-forcible sex offense, the outcomes of any student conduct process conducted by IWU against the student-perpetrator. If the victim is deceased as a result of the crime or offense, IWU will provide the results of the student conduct process to the victim's next of kin, as requested.

After the investigation and finding, the complainant and respondent have the right to an appeal. The appeals process is explained in further detail on the following pages. A survivor of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence or stalking has different options for reporting the incident to the university or police. The investigative procedures will vary depending on the option chosen by the survivor. Regardless of the option, all students and employees are given access to counseling, medical and other remedies as discussed later within this report.

POLICE INVESTIGATION PROCESS

There may be possible criminal charges filed, to include a trial, testifying and possible jail or prison time. The complainant may have to see the respondent during the process. The standard of evidence in a police investigation and court proceedings is "beyond a reasonable doubt." The term "beyond a reasonable doubt" connotes that evidence establishes a particular point to a moral certainty and that it is beyond dispute that any reasonable alternative is possible. "Beyond a reasonable doubt" is the highest standard of proof that must be met in any trial.

UNIVERSITY INVESTIGATION PROCESS

There is no trial. A hearing is conducted by the university using "preponderance of the evidence" as the standard to determine the outcome of a case. The complainant does not have to see the respondent at all during the process if they choose. Preponderance of the evidence is required in civil cases and is based on the more convincing evidence and its probable truth or accuracy, and not on the amount of evidence.

Rights Afforded to a Student During an INVESTIGATION

A student who is filing a complaint has the following rights during an investigation into an alleged case of sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, or stalking:

- The right to be notified of an investigation.
- The right to participate in the investigation to the extent chosen.
- The right to share any information which may be relevant to the investigation.
- The right to be notified of the findings of an investigation.
- The right to file an appeal of the finding.
- The right to call witnesses who have information about the incident.
- The right to notice of the outcome of the hearing.
- The right to appeal the outcome of the hearing.

Rights Afforded to a Student During a CONDUCT HEARING

A student who is filing a complaint has the following rights during a conduct hearing addressing alleged sexual assault, dating or domestic violence, or stalking:

- The right to an advisor of choice during every step of the process.
- The right to participate in every step of the hearing to the extent chosen.
- The right to share any information which may be relevant to the investigation.
- The right to review any evidence prior to the hearing.
- The right to call witnesses who have information about the incident.
- The right to notice of the outcome of the hearing.
- The right to appeal the outcome of the hearing.

Procedurally, when IWU receives a report of a Sensitive Crime, or other sex or gender discrimination, the campus Title IX Coordinator is notified. If the victim wishes to access local community agencies and/or law enforcement for support, IWU will assist the victim in making these contacts. The Title IX Coordinator, or designee, will offer assistance to victims in the form of interim or long-term measures such as opportunities for academic accommodations; changes in housing for the victim or the responding student; visa and immigration assistance; changes in working situations; and other assistance as may be appropriate and available on campus or in the community (such as no contact orders, campus escorts, transportation assistance, targeted interventions, etc.).

If the victim so desires, that individual will be connected with a counselor on- or off-campus, as well as an on- or off-campus victim's advocate. No victim is required to take advantage of these services and resources, but IWU provides them in the hopes of offering help and support without condition or qualification. A summary of rights, options, supports, and procedures in the form of this document, is provided to all victims, whether they are students, employees, guests, or visitors.

When appropriate, upon receipt of notice, the Title IX Coordinator will cause a prompt, fair, and impartial process to be initiated, commencing with an investigation, which may lead to the imposition of sanctions based upon a preponderance of evidence (what is more likely than not), upon a responding student or other accused individual.

The complainant and the respondent will receive written notification simultaneously within 10 days of the receipt of complaint. The notification will include the name of the investigator(s) assigned to the complaint. The respondent and the complainant will have timely and equal access to the information submitted in the complaint and any additional information used during the informal or formal disciplinary meetings. The respondent or the complainant will be given this information at the first meeting with the investigator, or may request a meeting prior to that meeting to obtain this information.

The investigation and hearing process for Title IX cases is the same as the student conduct process with one change. We strive to handle each violation of policy at the lowest level of accountability necessary, some cases will be investigated and decided by Resident Directors (RDs) and others by the director of Student Conduct and Community Standards. A case is assigned to either an RD or the Director based on the nature and severity of the violation, as well as a student's conduct history with the institution.

Once the determination is made to start the investigation and hearing process, students can expect the following process:

- The University Official will contact both parties via their IWU student email or telephone and provide a scheduled meeting time. The scheduled conduct meeting is an opportunity for the following:
 - The students to be presented with the information in the report submitted
 - The students to ask questions
 - The students to present their own information regarding the report, including any "evidence" they would like to present, names of additional witnesses, etc.
 - The University Official to ask questions as part of the investigative process

RIGHT TO AN ADVISOR

Any student involved (victim or accused) in the conduct process will have the right to be accompanied by an individual of their choice, excluding an attorney or other legal representation. The student must provide the name of this individual to the Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards at least 24 hours preceding the hearing. The primary purpose of such an individual is for emotional and moral support. At no time may the accompanying individual participate directly in the hearing; he/she may only consult with the student.

Though the student conduct process does not typically allow a student to be accompanied by an attorney during the process, the University will allow such advisement if criminal charges are pending concurrent to the University proceedings. Proof of such charges must be presented to the Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards at least 24 hours preceding the scheduled hearing. During such time, the attorney may only advise his/her client and may not speak during the proceedings or serve as an active participant in the process.

The Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards has the right and authority to excuse an accompanying individual or attorney should his/her behavior be deemed inappropriate during the process.

FINDINGS

If the University Official determines there is enough information to make a decision at the conduct meeting, the decision and sanctions will be shared at that time. If the official determines that more information or further investigation is necessary to make a decision, the decision will be made after the investigation is complete. This may include additional meetings with the student.

DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS AND SANCTIONS

EMPLOYEES – DISCIPLINARY ACTION

Employees who fail to comply with university policies or regulations will be subject to discipline. Sanctions for employees are determined by the university's Human Resources department and can range from oral reprimands to termination.

STUDENTS – DISCIPLINARY ACTION

Indiana Wesleyan University National & Global students are held accountable to the statement in the National & Global Catalog.

Indiana Wesleyan University is a Christian university of higher education that upholds high standards of personal and professional conduct. Such standards include a classroom environment that promotes a positive learning environment and a professional instructional climate.

Students are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner with respect for the rights of both students and faculty. The university or its representatives reserve the right to act in situations where student behavior violates established policy or detracts from the ability of students or faculty to function effectively in the classroom. Such action may include disciplinary procedures issued by the faculty or suspension from the program.

REMEDIATIVE STEPS

Survivors of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking are entitled to rights to ensure they are protected and can begin the process of getting back to life prior to being a victim. The university will work with the student and help them through the processes below:

INTERIM SUSPENSION

The university may remove one or more students who are suspected of violating policy from the university prior to a hearing on the issues if there is a potential for risk to one or more members of the University community.

TEMPORARY NO CONTACT ORDER

The university may impose a temporary “no contact” order restricting contact between individuals during the course of an investigation.

STANDING NO CONTACT ORDER AND GEOGRAPHIC RESTRICTIONS

The university may impose a permanent “no contact” order, or an order restricting students who are found to have violated university policy from specific buildings or areas of campus.

SECURITY ESCORTS

The university may discuss options for ensuring travel safety to and from specific locations on and off campus.

TEMPORARY MODIFICATION OF ON-CAMPUS EMPLOYMENT

The university can provide temporary reassignment of on-campus employment duties within the university during the course of an investigation. The university may also review the assigned duties of students who are alleged to have violated university policy.

PERMANENT ADJUSTMENT OF STUDENT EMPLOYMENT

If an employment assignment is no longer comfortable due to the experience, the university will assist in exploring other potential options within the university and may review the assigned duties of students who are found to have violated university policy.

PERMANENT CLASS SCHEDULE ADJUSTMENTS

If it is determined that the most effective way to help ensure academic success is to adjust one or more classes you are enrolled in, the university will assist in minimizing the impact to your academic plans and goals.

NO-COST MEDICAL AND PSYCHOLOGICAL SUPPORT

The university will provide no-cost medical and psychological services through the Student Health Service to assist any student who requests them as a result of any experience under investigation by the university.

NO-COST ACADEMIC SUPPORT

If it is determined that the experience placed the survivor’s academic success in jeopardy, the university will make academic support services available at no cost.

ASSISTANCE IN ADDING, DROPPING OR RETAKING COURSES

If the experience has made it difficult or impossible to continue with one or more classes for a period of time, the university will assist in the process of adding, dropping, or retaking one or more courses at a different time, day, location, or semester. The university will assist in determining the best course of action, taking financial aid, living and academic situation into account.
