

Personal Financial Planning - MBA Pre-licensure disclosure

The Master of Business Administration with a specialization in Personal Financial Planning program at Indiana Wesleyan University seeks to prepare the program graduate for certification and service in the Personal Financial Planning profession. The certification process is the same regardless of the student's state of residence.

Following successful program completion, the program graduate will be eligible to take the CFP® Exam administered by the CFP Board.